May the Road Rise to Meet You

SETTING IAIN MCLARTY

May the road rise to meet you. May the wind always be at your back.
May the sun shine upon your face; the rain fall soft on your fields and until we meet again, and until we meet again,
may God hold you, hold you in the palm of God's hand.

You are invited to light candles

Tea lights for illuminating with flame or switch are on tables.
We will bring you a candle if you like.
Children and youth depart as you are ready.
You are welcome to absorb the words.

Lead Us Safely Home

ostinato Lead us safely home; lead us safely home.

Brown meadows in the summer sun,
Green branches where the rivers run.
This holy life so quickly done,
Oh, lead us safely home.

Breakfast counters, corner bars
City buses, railroad cars
Formed from dust of dying stars
Oh, lead us safely home.

Hold a baby at your breast,
Hike the trail to mountain crest.
And at the last a holy rest,
Oh, lead us safely home.

Stand for justice, strike for peace
Strive for prisoners' release
And when our little labours cease
Then lead us safely home.

Hospital corridors of night,
Where walk the nurses of the light,
To tell us it will be all right,
Oh, lead us safely home.

Look in to each other's eyes,
Beyond the laughter and the lies.
Oh God of heaven, make us wise,
And lead us safely home.

(Merciful God, support us all the day long ... and peace at the last. Amen.)

As in heaven, so on earth,
Christ has hallowed human worth,
And dying is a second birth.
So lead us safely home. Oh, lead us safely home. ...
