Hearer of All

The Qur'an

You hear the jubilation
Of the happy-hearted,
And the questioning
Of the confused seeker.
You hear the shout
Of the angry one.
And the last sigh
Of the dying.
The ear of your heart
Is always open to us.

Today: The Hearer of All listens to me.

from Fragments of Your Ancient Name by Joyce Rupp

Anna Benowicz shared the beauty of our St. Paul's gardens and bouquets in the photos on many cards you received – and she cared for our indoor plants. In memory of Anna, we will create perennial flower beds or plant flowering shrubs as a tribute to her. You may be part of this tribute and its ongoing care by contributing to the Church Memorial Fund in memory of Anna. Cheque payable to St. Paul's United Church, cash or e-transfer stpaulsaccountant@telus.net; (please note 'Anna - Memorial Fund' on the memo line or in message box).

Anna also cared deeply for animals. Donations in memory of Anna Benowicz may be made by mailing a cheque or on their website at www.scarscare.ca

YOUTH

This Sunday, there will be a program with Rev. Anna in the Bentley Room.

The Annual Congregational Meeting of St. Paul's United Church will be Sunday, March 19, following worship. This meeting will be held in person, in the Foote Auditorium. Lunch will be provided. Children will be cared for.

DAY 5 Thursday, March 23 at 7:30 pm IN PERSON - FRIENDSHIP ROOM

Day 5 will be in person as we host A Death Café. Death Café is a global movement which encourages people to get together, drink tea (or coffee), eat dessert and talk about death.

The discussions are respectful and group directed, with no set agenda. There is no intention to lead you to any conclusion, product or course of action. This is a time to talk.

This event is not meant to provide in-depth care around grief and bereavement. You are safe and welcome to this event, no matter your current experience of grief, sadness, fear or loss. For more information/questions, please contact Rev. Anna

Fire Marshalls: We have 3 new volunteers! Thank you to Ron Melick, Jim Stewart and Lorene Turner.
