Incarnate One

Over these two thousand and more years
Have we become immune to your embodiment?
Has the reality of your fleshy humanness
Become a mere glazed remembrance of joy?
Perhaps this Christmas the surprise will re-awaken.
We will be open-mouthed in awe at your coming.
Our wonder will surpass what consumes our lives.
We will look with fresh awareness at who you are,
Learning from you, rededicated to live your teachings
Until our fleshiness, too, radiates genuine love.
Today: The Incarnate One's coming amazes me.
