Hiding Place

Psalm 32:7

Ah, there are those days
When the best place to be
Is hiding out with you
Where stillness is to be found
And perspective from problems.
Where hope can be restored
And peace re-enters the mind.
Where joy waits to be savored
And mourning given her due.
Thank you for being my Hiding Place.

Today: I go to my Hiding Place.

Family Day at Coyote Lake Lodge

Jack Francis Tries Out a New Toy

Thanks to all 27 guests, drivers, New Canadians, and volunteer guides, Family Day (February 16) at Coyote Lake lodge was a success for the third year. A highlight of the day was provided by Randy Schlender from Daysland who brought four wheelchairs on caterpillar tracks for lodge guests to operate. Jack Francis, (never too old to try a new machine) bounced over ice and through snow drifts where a sidewalk chair could not operate. We look forward to people like Danny Wein travelling over the 10km of trails covered with snow, mud, and grass at Coyote Lake Lodge all through the year.
