Shepherd

Psalm 23

I have been in that bleak valley
When the last bit of joyfulness
Was sucked out of my spirit
By the ripping winds of desolation.
In those times of extended anguish
The memory of green pastures
With you shepherding my way
Brought me strength to go on.
Shepherd, now, others in need
As they stumble on their dark road.

Today: I unite my heart with those in gloomy valleys.

It's time to order your Easter plant!

The Flower Group is offering you the opportunity to purchase a plant in memory of, or in honour of, someone special. The plants will beautify the chancel on Easter Sunday and then, after the service, you take your plant home. Plant choices are hydrangeas ($35) or chrysanthemums ($17).

Orders will be taken in the Friendship Room on March 15th. Or you may order by Interac e-transfer to stpaulsaccountant@telus.net or drop a cheque off at the office. Be sure to designate the name of the person you wish to have remembered.

Deadline for ordering is Wednesday, March 18th.

Thank you for your support of the work of the Flower Group.
